6. Reports

President Palomino: Reminded the group that the Thanksgiving Feast will take place tomorrow from 3-6 p.m.

Cornor: Announced that he will not be able to attend the Thanksgiving Feast.

Ramiah: Encouraged senators to sign up to volunteer at the Thanksgiving Feast.

Reese: Reported difficulties accessing the room reserved for the feast.

Emilia: Provided an update on events she recently attended.

Jay: Shared that the Success, Equity, and Transformation Committee meeting was canceled due to a lack of discussion items.

Kaylee: Announced that the Dance Showcase will be held December 11-13th.

Sage: Informed the group that there will no longer be an ICC Secretary.

Victoria: Checked in with senators regarding the completion of their monthly campus reports, which are required and available on the Canvas shell. Announced the leadership retreat on Wednesday, January 28th, and encouraged strong ASG participation. Gave a shoutout to Jeremiah for speaking at the Board of Trustees meeting.

7. Discussion Items

1. Club Matching

Lauren: Introduced the club advisor, Christine.

Christine: Shared that she is working on creating events for Mesa students and recruiting additional club members.

(619) 388-2903
(619) 388-2971 FAX

Emilia: Volunteered to participate in Club Match for Phi Beta Club in the amount of $53.00.

2. Rock Painting Event

The Stand will help sponsor the Rock Painting event, providing watercolor materials for participating Mesa students.

3. Create a Career Event

Kaylee and Alexis: Announced plans to hold a Career Workshop where students can receive support in major exploration and learn how to use LinkedIn. They hope to invite Iana as a guest speaker for the event and intend to work with the campus photographer.

4. Self-Driving Club

Engineering Club: Second-year engineering students are working to establish a new engineering club, requesting $250 from ASG. They hope to compete in the Autonomous Kart Competition and are collaborating with USD Triton AI and Team Inspiration, a local engineering group. Their goal is to provide hands-on experience and facilitate skill development for Mesa students.

The team is currently working on smaller preparatory projects for the go-kart race, now in week three of development. Mesa College would be the first community college to participate in this competition. Materials are costly, and while they have acquired a used go-kart, it requires repairs. They are seeking secondhand parts to reduce expenses and aim to bring hands-on robotics opportunities to campus. Most participating students are STEM majors, with some business majors involved. Meetings are held weekly on Fridays in person.

Alexis Han and Kaylee Stearns: Agreed to take on this project and support further involvement with the engineering club initiative.
